French Designs
Mesa 'Winner'

By CARL SAWYER

Fools are supposed to rush in where angels fear to tread so where does that leave Tom French?

He is nobody's fool and he doesn't intend to rub elbows with a band of angels for quite a while, but here he is in Orange County ready to do something no other mortal has been able to do.

The project: Organize a winning football program at Costa Mesa High.

French, a new arrival from Ohio, couldn't have selected a more unlikely spot to launch his project. If football wins were worth a buck, Costa Mesa High could just about afford a new pair of shoes.

Mustang football teams have managed 30 wins in the school's first 14 campaigns. Football fans in Costa Mesa have been the most undernourished fans in Orange County, finding little to cheer about since Costa Mesa first fielded a varsity team in 1960.

Five coaches tried their hand at the Mustang Helm. Don Burns got Costa Mesa off to a promising start with a 4-5 record in the school's maiden season, but something misfired when the Mustangs went 2-7 and 2-6-1 the next two seasons.

Dan Kimball tried his luck next, lasting three seasons that resulted in a 4-22-1 record, highlighted only by a startling 7-6 win over Newport Harbor High to escape a winless season in the finale.

Best Mark Was 4-4-1

Neil Peek stepped forward and lasted four seasons from 1966 through 1969. His high water mark was a 4-4-1 record in 1967, destined to be the best in Costa Mesa history to date.

Max Miller replaced Peek and went 2-7-0 in 1970 and 1-8-0 in 1971 before turning over the reins to John Sweazy. The Mustangs were winless in 1972, but came to life for a 4-5-0 mark in 1973.

Now Tom French is on the scene and he's fully aware that Costa Mesa's composite record in varsity football is 30 wins, 93 losses and three ties.

What happened at Costa Mesa before he arrived doesn't faze French. He had an earlier look at a king-size challenge in Ohio.

Big Winner In Ohio

An immediate winner as a prep coach in Ohio when he directed Fairview Park to a 54-33-1 record in nine seasons, French is determined to get Costa Mesa into the win column using the same tools he employed in Ohio.

"It's a matter of taking a positive approach and convincing the players we have that they can be as good as anyone we play. That's what we have to work on.

"Success breeds success, there's no question about that," he emphasized.

The mental aspect is important to French, and it's going to be important to the Mustangs.

"You have to treat players today like men. You can't scream and holler all the time.

ICCC VICTORS — Michael Evans, center, of Arrowhead Country Club and father (partner) Julius Evans, right, of Irvine Coast CC accept the winner's trophy from tournament chairman Paul Rife after capturing the 19th annual ICCC Member-Guest golf tournament. The first ever father-son duo to win the event carded a 183½ to win the Pinehurst scotch-better ball 45-hole tourney by eight strokes. Tom Cummings (ICCC) teamed with former Walker Cupper Dr. Bud Taylor of Palm Springs, posted a 214 for low gross honors to top the field of 144 teams in the three-day competition.

Fears Prods QB Adams
Into Taking Command

By CHUCK ABRAIR

With four games in the books and 16 to go in the initial World Football League season, head coach Tom Fears of the Southern California Sun wants to see his ball carriers run harder and more passing in the offense.

He would like to have the changes start tonight in a bid for a 3-2 record when the New York Stars invade Anaheim Stadium.

It would seem the man in charge would have the say about how many passes a team would throw, but Fears likes to leave that up to his quarterbacks.

"I don't think our running backs are going as hard as they could," says Fears referring mainly to Kermit Johnson and James McAlister. "Kermit had a bad foot earlier and it may still be bothering him some. Ralph Nelson is behind them and he just has no experience not having played college ball."

Starting quarterback Tony Adams, who complained to the press and later to Fears about being benched in defeat at Memphis in favor of Gary Valbuena, may come out earlier this evening if he stays too much on the ground.

"I wouldn't expect any guy to be pleased about getting taken out," stressed Fears. Adams has talked to me about it. I gave him my reasons and he accepted them.

"We have very good receivers and two fine passers so I think we should be throwing more than we have been. We're not getting enough out of the game. I admit we had less time last week to throw than before yet there are ways to handle a good rush and buy some time. We have plays designed for that if they are used.

"I don't like to send in plays because so much depends on being involved with situations. Sometimes if I don't like what I see out there I may send in something on the next series. I may send in five or six plays a game."

Fears and offensive coordinator Babe Dimancheff prefer to establish a game plan and have the QB carry it out. However, their patience is getting shorter.

"Tony has been too conservative and that is surprising to me," adds Fears. "Most quarterbacks like to open it up and throw."

Nevada Favors
Rams, Dolphins

STATELINE, Nev. (UPI) — The Miami Dolphins and the Los Angeles Rams have been installed as favorites by a Nevada bookmaker, to meet in the NFL Super Bowl next year.

Harrah's Tahoe Race and Sports Book listed its opening line Tuesday with Miami a 2-1 favorite to win the American Football Conference and Los Angeles a 5-2 choice to capture the National Football Conference.

In the American Conference the odds were Oakland 3-1, Pittsburgh 4-1, Cincinnati 5-1, Buffalo 6-1, Denver 8-1, Kansas City 15-1, Cleveland 15-1, Baltimore and New York Jets both 20-1, San Diego 50-1 and New England and Houston both 60-1.

West Grovers
Reach Finals

Tom Barnett hurled a perfect game to lead West Grove to a 1-0 win over Brookhurst and into the championship finals of the Garden Grove City Senior Little League Tournament Tuesday at West Grove Field.

Barnett struck out eight and allowed only one ball out of the infield as he retired all 21 batters he faced in the seven-inning clash.

West Grove scored its only run on a bases-loaded squeeze bunt by Eddie Remele in the seventh which scored John Hockenberry.

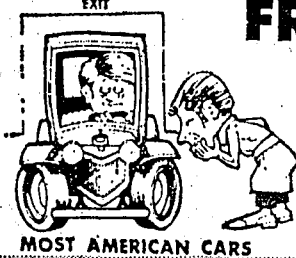

West Grove, which had to forfeit its first game in the tournament because some of its players were still competing in all-star competition will meet Brookhurst again on Thursday at 5:30 p.m. for the title.

Own 8 acres of the Old West.

Trees. Wildflowers. Tranquillity. Clean air. Fresh well water. Abundant wildlife. Beautiful, uncluttered panoramas. Room to live and breathe.

Things people used to take for granted. Things that now you have to search for in remote places.

Your search is over. Santa Teresa has what you are looking for. Beautiful 8-acre ranch sites offer you a chance to escape from the expanding cities. A place where you can still hear the sound of a babbling brook . . . and birds singing. Where you can see the natural beauty of the land still unspoiled. A place where you can feel free.

There's underground electricity and telephone service.

Natural water is supplied to each site by a privately owned mutual water company. And the picturesque town of Ramona provides schools, shopping and services just 8 miles west of Santa Teresa Estates.

Discover Santa Teresa Estates for yourself. It's where the Old West still lives!
